(3) Application for the Fall Semester

Tuition waivers and registration for university-recommended scholarships must be applied for each semester. If you wish, please remember to apply for the fall semester as well. Since the screening for tuition waiver is conducted every semester, application results for the fall semester are not always the same as those for the spring semester. Make sure to check the announcement results for each semester.

If there are any changes as described below* after your application, you are not eligible for a tuition waiver.

- * You plan to take a leave of absence, or graduate/ complete during each semester (spring: April - September, fall: October – March)
- * Your status of residence is changed to something other than "Student"

(4) Important Information

- If your application contains any false declarations or your conduct constitutes grounds for disciplinary action, your application or application results may become invalid.
- Information posted on the Global Promotion Division's website is deemed to have been communicated and received, so you cannot file a protest later on the grounds that you did not see the information posted.
- As a general rule, you will receive messages at your YNU e-mail address if YNU has any inquiries. Please check your YNU e-mail box once a day.
Please note that if any of the required responses and documents are not submitted by the designated deadline, you may be disadvantaged or your application may be excluded from the screening process.
- You need to apply separately each semester. The application mentioned in these application guidelines is for the fall semester AY2024.

(5) Applications by students enrolled in International Cooperation Degree Programs designated in the regulations for Honor International Students [applicable individuals only]

In the following programs (entrance examinations), there are individuals who have been selected as Honor International Students and those who have not been selected for tuition waivers for one year based on their entrance exam results.

- YGEP-N1 Pre-arrival examination for the College of Engineering Science
- YGEP-N1 and YGEP-N2 Pre-arrival examination for the College of Urban Sciences
- SOCIally Resilient And susTainable EcoSystems Program (YOKOHAMA SOCRATES Program) for the College of Urban Sciences

Students who have not been selected for tuition waiver cannot apply for the tuition waiver for the AY2024 but may do the data registration for university-recommended scholarships.

2. Tuition Waiver

[Important] Since this program is operated according to the budget allocated by the Japanese government, any significant changes to the future budget allocation may result in the program itself being revised. In such an event, YNU will inform you promptly.

(1) Overview of the Program

The YNU Tuition Waiver Program for Privately Financed International Students is a program to promote the acceptance of academically excellent international students and provide them with financial support after their admission to YNU.

New or current regular YNU undergraduate or graduate privately financed international students whose status of residence is "Student" are eligible for this program. Applicants will be entitled to a full, half, or 30% exemption from tuition fees according to their academic performance (for doctoral programs, the exemption rate will be a full or half).

(2) Exemption Period

The exemption period is for the fall semester AY2024*1.

*1 Tuition waivers must be applied for each semester. If you wish, please remember to apply for the fall semester as well. Since the screening for tuition waiver is conducted every semester, application results for the fall semester are not always the same as those for the spring semester. Make sure to check the announcement results for each semester.

(3) Application Eligibility

To apply for a tuition waiver, you are required to meet all of the following eligibility requirements.

1) Privately financed regular undergraduate or graduate international student at YNU as of October 1st, 2024.

International students who are sponsored or dispatched by their governments as well as privately financed international students who receive aid for their tuition fees from JICA, the World Bank, foreign governments, or other institutions are not eligible for the YNU Tuition Waiver Program.

2) Have or going to have a "Student" status of residence as prescribed by Japanese law (Immigration Control and Refugee Recognition Act)

* If you have "Permanent Resident", "Long-Term Resident" or "Dependent" status of residence, please contact the Financial Support Section (gakusei.keizai@ynu.ac.jp).

3) The "Student" status of residence mentioned in (2) must be valid for the entire semester, or be expected to be renewed.

(4) Screening Method

[Undergraduate programs and master's programs]

1) New Students (in the 1st semester of 1st year)

Screening is based on the entrance examination results. Applicants who ranked in the top 50% among privately financed international students who passed the examination will be entitled to a full, half, or 30% exemption from tuition fees according to their entrance examination results. (Please note, however, that even those who are eligible may not be entitled to an exemption, as the quota given to each undergraduate college and graduate school is limited.)

2) Current students (in the 2nd semester of 1st year or above)

Screening is based on academic records (total GPA through the last semester) in respective undergraduate colleges and graduate schools.

However, tuition waiver will not apply to the following applicants.

- Those who have not earned at least the standard number of credits^{*1} specified by their respective colleges or graduate schools.
- Those whose enrollment period (excluding any leave of absence) has exceeded the minimum period required for graduation.^{*2}
- Those who have transferred or re-enrolled in the semester.

*1 See p.9 for the "standard number of credits" specified by colleges and graduate schools.

*2 However, only if you are enrolled for not more than one year beyond the minimum period required for graduation, you may be considered "eligible", depending on the reason. Eligible applicants must submit a letter of reason at the time of application.

[Doctoral program]

1) New Students (in the 1st semester of 1st year)

Screening is based on the entrance examination results. Applicants will be entitled to a full or half exemption from tuition fees according to their entrance examination results.

2) Current students (in the 2nd semester of 1st year or above)

Screening is based on academic records in the respective graduate schools. Applicants will receive a full or half exemption from tuition fees according to their academic performance, including the publication of peer-reviewed papers and the receipt of awards, as well as their grades for earned credits.

However, tuition waiver will not apply to the following applicants.

- Those whose enrollment period (excluding any leave of absence) has exceeded the minimum period required for graduation.^{*1}
- Those who have transferred or re-enrolled in the semester.

*1 However, only if you are enrolled for not more than one year beyond the minimum period required for graduation, you may be considered "eligible", depending on the reason. Eligible applicants must submit a letter of reason at the time of application.

(5) Screening Results

(Log in with your YNU ID and password)

- To protect personal information, YNU does not post application results on campus bulletin boards. Also, YNU does not send notices of results to individual applicants or accept inquiries by telephone about results.
- If you cannot check your results through the Student Information System, come to the Financial Support Section (Counter No.1, Student Center 2F) with your student card. If you find it difficult to come to the university, please contact them at gakusei.keizai@ynu.ac.jp from your YNU Mail account, with a copy of your student card.

[Payment deadline and debit date]

- If you are awarded a full waiver, your tuition fees will not be debited from your account.
- If you are awarded a half waiver or 30% waiver or if your waiver application is rejected, your tuition fees will be automatically debited from your registered account on the following dates.
January 27(Mon), 2025, for the fall semester.

[Important]

- Applicants who plan to graduate in the middle of each semester (spring semester: April to September, fall semester: October to March) are not eligible for screening.
- Once you apply for a waiver, you will not need to pay your tuition fees until the application results are announced. Your tuition fees will not be debited on the regular debit dates.
- Please note that you will be expelled if you fail to pay your tuition fees by the prescribed deadline, so make sure to observe the payment deadline.
- If you apply in the spring semester, make sure to check the announcement of application results in the fall semester as well. Application results for the fall semester are not always the same as those for the spring semester.
- The details of the selection criteria for tuition fee exemptions are not disclosed, so we cannot respond to inquiries. Additionally, you cannot appeal the exemption results.

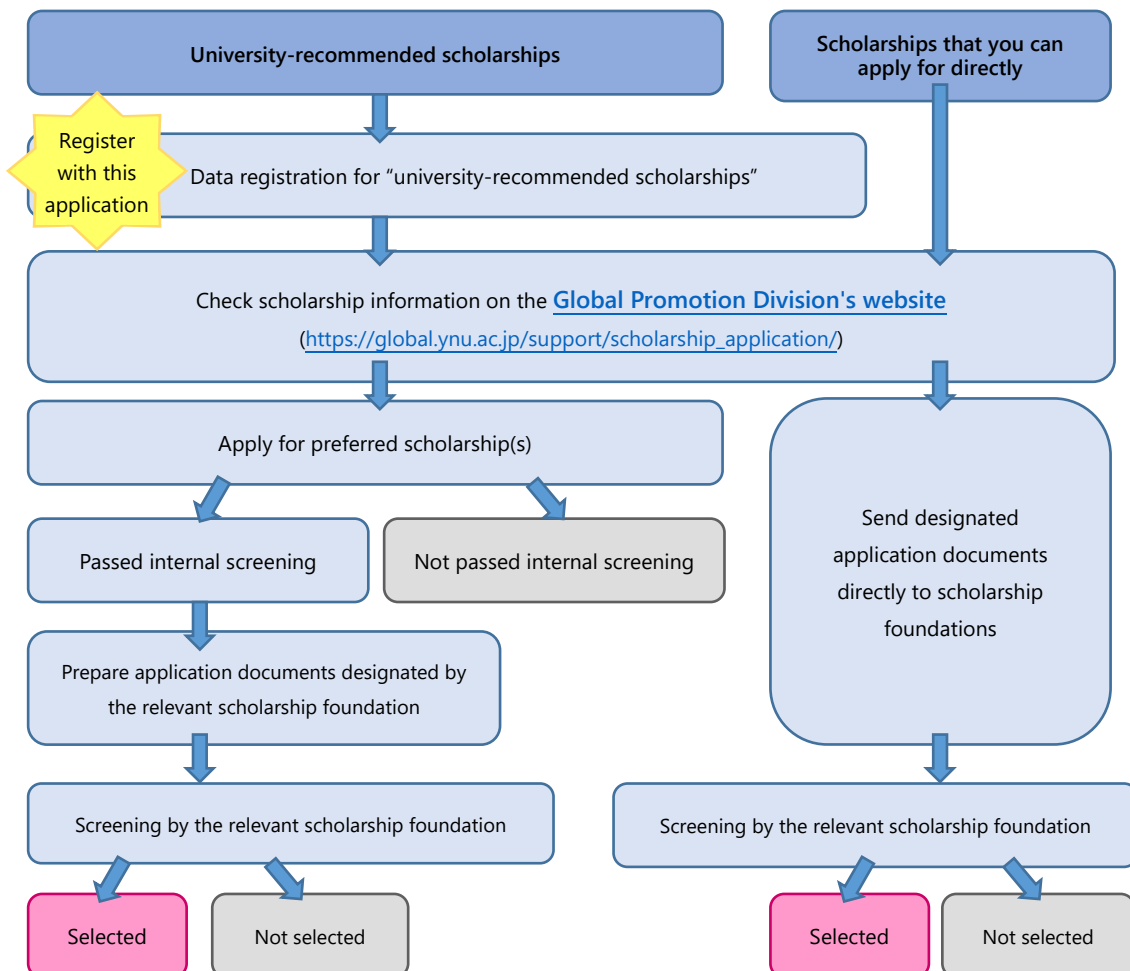

3. Data Registration for university-recommended scholarships

(1) Overview of the Program

Two types of scholarships are available for privately financed international students: University-recommended scholarships, which require a recommendation from the university in order for you to apply, and scholarships you can apply for directly, which allow students to apply directly to scholarship foundations. Data registration for university-recommended scholarships is a program for registering the basic data used in internal screening for scholarships requiring the university's recommendation.

[Important] You cannot apply for a scholarship simply by completing the data registration for university-recommended scholarships. After registration, please check the scholarship information provided on the Global Promotion Division's website and then apply for your preferred scholarship(s) through the designated online form.
